A Place to Grow

Published by Phoenix Christian High School, Phoenix, Arizona

Throughout the history of mankind, a tree has been used to symbolize the developing maturity of an individual. The Bible uses a tree to symbolize a Christian's spiritual life and growth. We as Christians should not be dead, unproductive wood. Our lives should be like the man mentioned in Jeremiah 17:7-8: "Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit."

We are confident that if we as Christians put our hope and trust in the Lord, we have His promise that we will be fruitful, living Christians who will want to give of ourselves to others. As a result we will more fully realize the truth expressed by Joyce Kilmer, "Only God can make a tree."

GLENN SMITH

The life of the man to whom we dedicate THE BEACON can be characterized by the Scripture, "He must increase, but I must decrease."

For thirteen years he has served the youth of Christian High as a member of the Board of Directors. During these years he has given of his time, financial resources, and Christian influence without thought of reward or acclaim.

The confidence of his colleagues in him es evidenced by the fact he is Chairman of the Board and has been on the Executive Committee for several years.

He has been a booster and enthusiastic supporter of Christian High and its total program.

Mr. Smith is superintendent of the Hy-White Cotton Ginning Company in Glendale.

We humbly dedicate THE BEACON to Glenn Smith, a Christian gentleman and an example of the believers in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, and in purity.

Glenn Smith, successor to Eli Whitney

Always ready to render any assistance to the cotton growers in the area, he also serves on the District Soil Conservation Board.

Lord, we are setting in this chosen ground
These tender nurslings, trusting in Thy grace
To cherish them in infancy, to guide
Their tiny rootletsthrough the darksome earth,
To lift their boughs to heaven, and give them power
To yield their tribute unto grateful men
In fruit, or flower, or shade.

Letter to the Students

Dear Students:

Greetings to you.

The mission of Phoenix Christian High School is unique in that the leaders of tomorrow can gain experience, training, and spiritual direction in an accredited school that honors God.

Education without God and His Son, Jesus Christ, is potentially dangerous. The student that learns early in life "to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness. . ." will be successful wherever he goes.

This was a good year, and it was gratifying to see the excellent spiritual and academic progress of the majority of the students.

Graduating seniors, may you remember the lessons learned on this campus and continually seek to fulfill God's purpose in your life. To hear of your spiritual, academic, and professional progress in the years to come will be reward enough to us who have had a part in your training and development.

Our prayer is for God's best for you.

Cordially in Christ,

Aubrey C. Byrd

Counselor

Mr. Loye Crenshaw served as Guidance Counselor as well as teacher during the 1965-66 school year. Since all college applications and qualification tests are handled through this office, it is one of the busiest on campus.

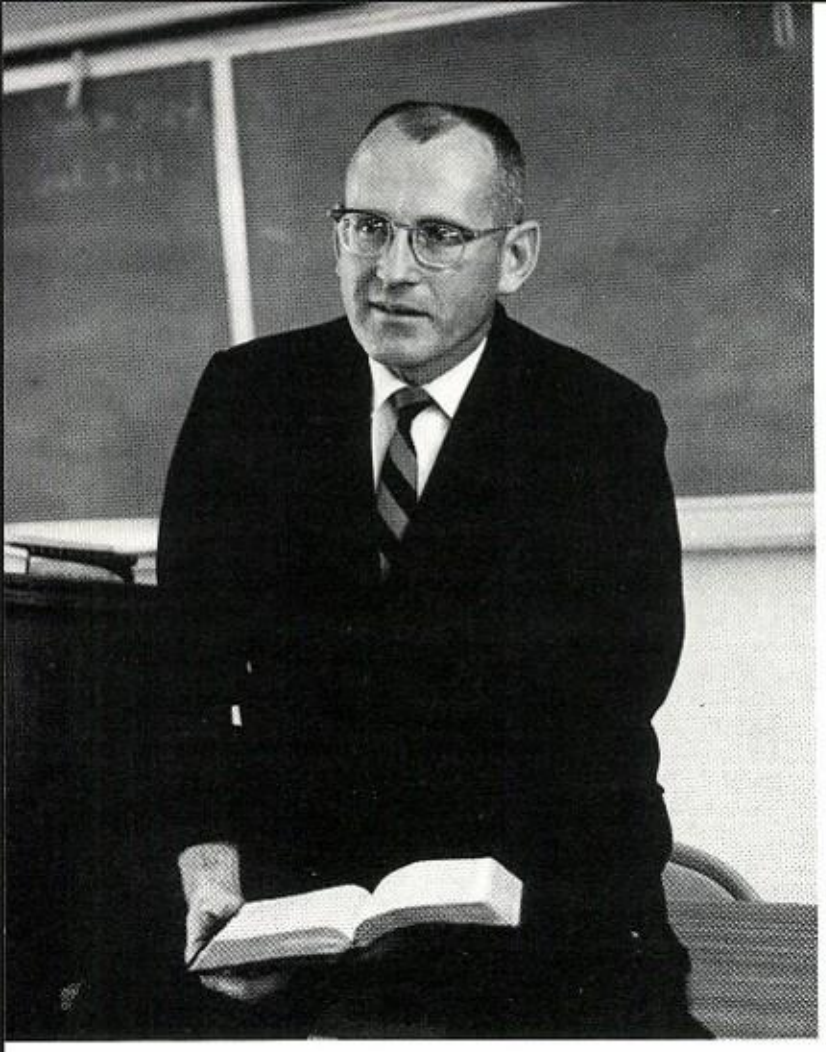
Mr. Loye Crenshaw

Rev. Harold Buckner

Public Relations

As Public Relations Director of Phoenix Christian High, Rev. Harold Buckner has many varied jobs. He directs the O. A. W. Campaign, sponsors the missionary club, works closely with the publications department, and keeps close contact with parents and friends of the school. He also presents the work of the school to many pastors and appears in various churches throughout the year with the school program.

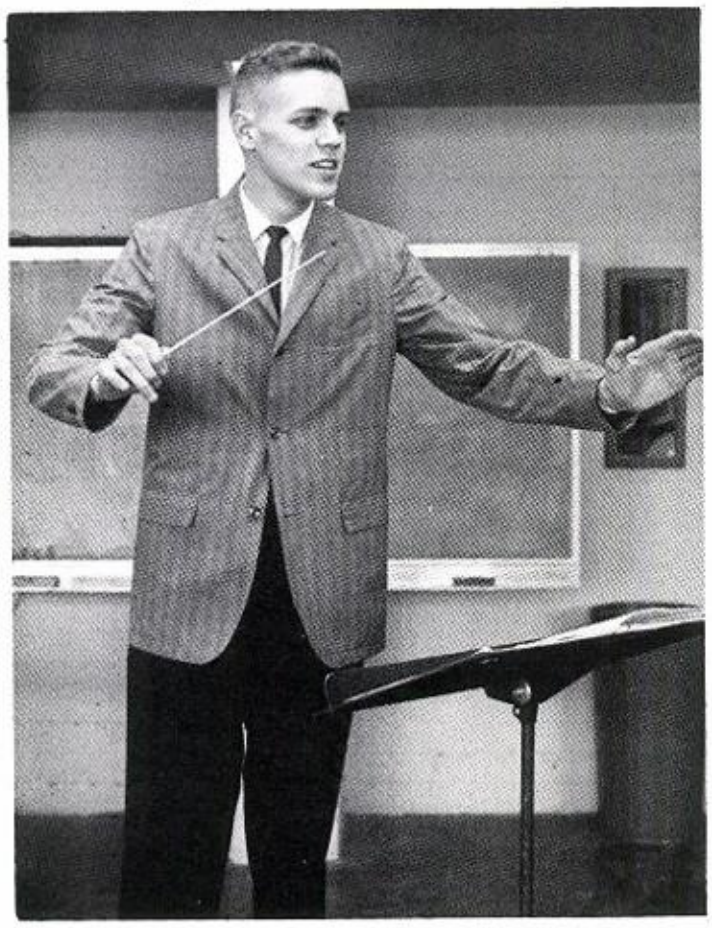
Faculty



Mr. Hovda

One of the purposes for founding Christian High was to give the students daily instruction in God's Word. This year it is the privilege of the Seniors and Freshmen to have MR. GENE HOVDA as their Bible teacher. Mr. Hovda received his Masters degree at Bemidji State Teachers' College and has been teaching at P. C. H. S. for six years. Besides teaching Bible, he sponsors T. F. Y. and co-sponsors Missionary Club with Mr. Buckner.

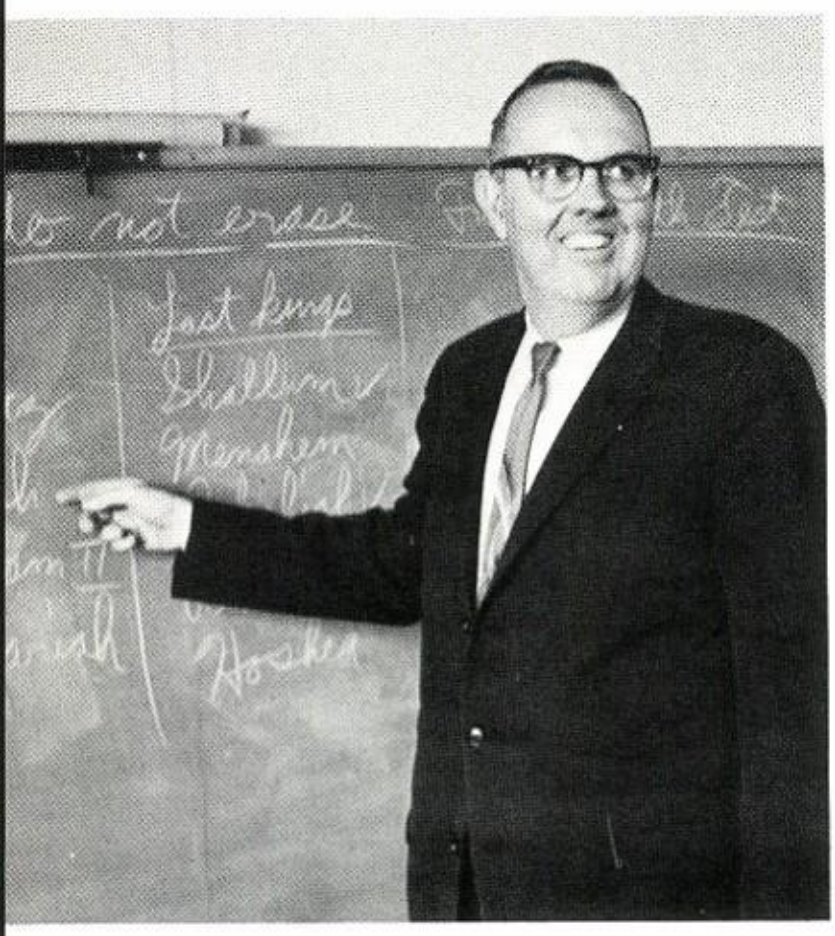
Music is a vital part of Christian High, and this year we are fortunate to have MR. GERALD BOLT in the Music Department. A graduate of P. C. H. S. and Greenville College, Mr. Bolt teaches Band, A Cappella, Choraliers, and General Music. It is his responisbility to plan and conduct vespers services and the operetta.



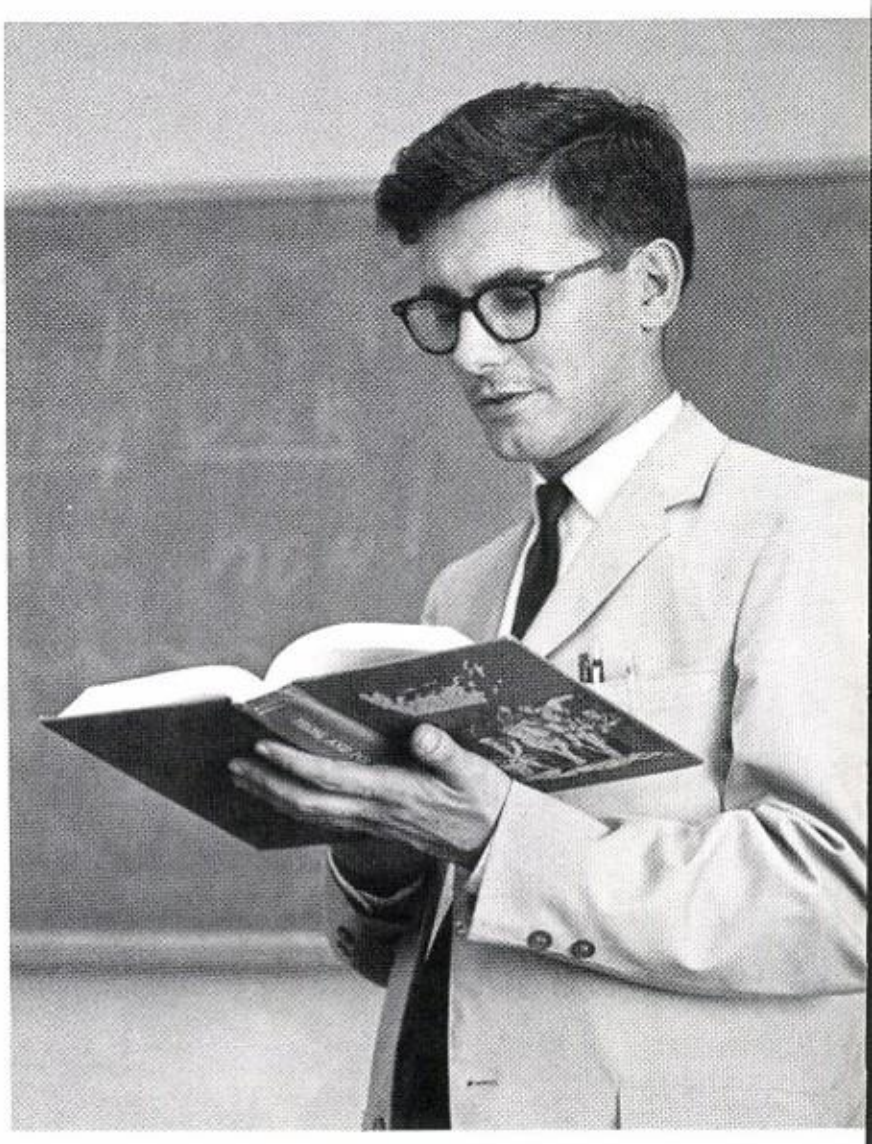
Mr. Bolt

One of the teachers P. C. H. S. Seniors seem to spend the most time with is MR. WILLIAM BROMLEY. Mr. Bromley teaches Senior English and Economics. Since Mr. Bromley gets to know the Seniors so well in these classes, he was also appointed Senior Class Sponsor. He teaches Sophomore Bible as an escape from the Seniors.

Someone has to keep the Juniors on their toes, and this year it is MR. VICTOR KELLY. Mr. Kelly teaches Junior English, speech, and journalism. One of the busier men on campus, Mr. Kelly advises both the "Beacon" and "Cougar Hi-Lites".



Mr. Bromley



Mr. Kelly

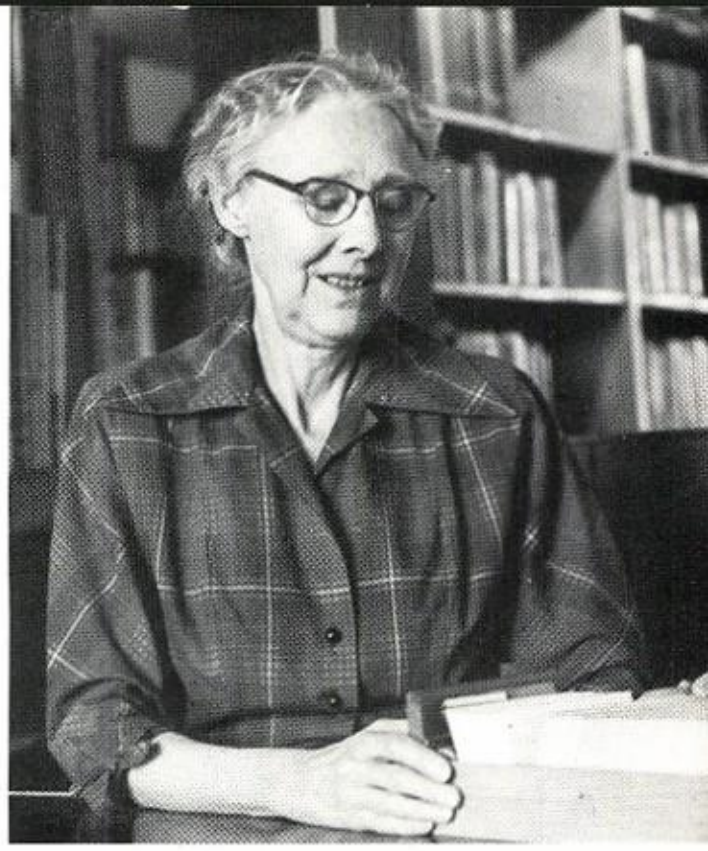
Mr. Stoltz & Mr. Morgan

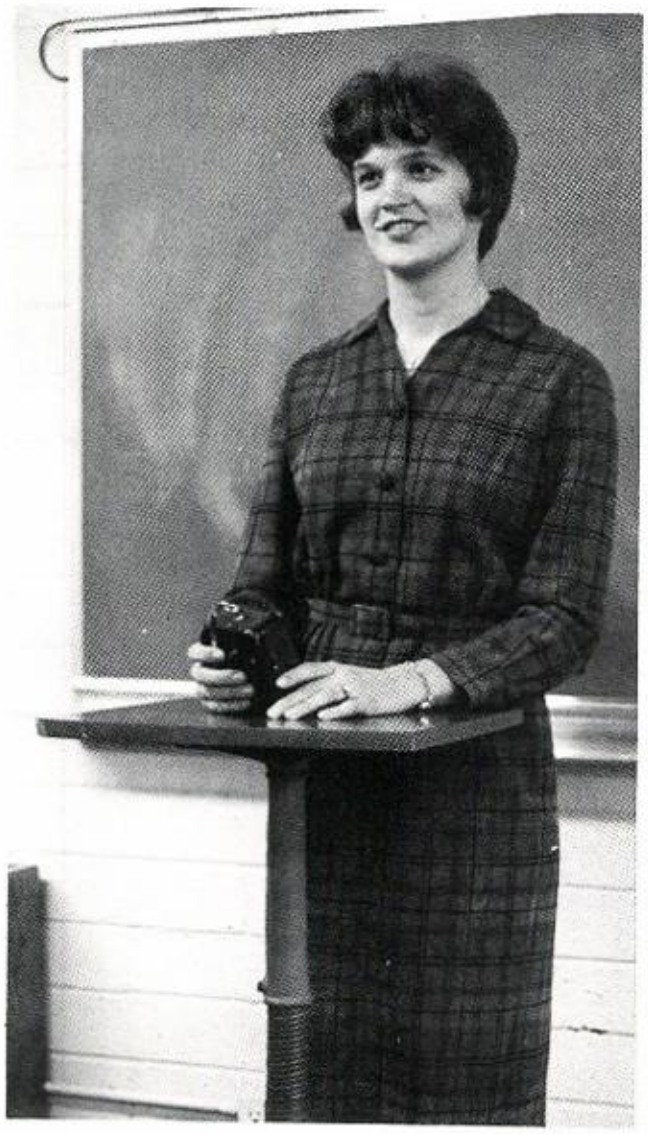
MR. RONALD STOLTZ and MR. STANLEY MORGAN are the backbones of the Science and Math Departments. Mr. Stoltz, who came to us from Illinois, teaches Biology, Bookkeeping, and second semester Chemistry. He also sponsors the Junior class. Mr. Morgan teaches Algebra I & II, Senior Math, and first semester Chemistry. He spends his spare time sponsoring the Science Club and serving as a member of the Student Admissions Committee. Students who spend any time in the library this year are well acquainted with MISS EDNA MODIG. Miss Modig, who came from Minnesota, is in charge of the library and is Audio-Visual Aids Coordinator. She is also the sponsor of the National Honor Society.



Miss Modig

MRS. JANET SANDERS' competent and organized manner typifies the attitude necessary today in the world of business. She teaches Shorthand I & II, Typing I & II, General Business, and Office Practice. Mrs. Sanders also sponsors Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, Pep Club, G.A.A., and Saddle Club.

We at P.C.H.S. are very fortunate to have MISS FAITH MIELKE and MRS. JOANNE SWANSON on the faculty. Miss Mielke, who came to Christian High last year, teaches German I & II and Sophomore English. She is also the Sophomore class sponsor. Mrs. Swanson teaches Spanish I & II and French I & II. Since she teaches two languages she sponsors the Language Club. She is also sponsor of F.T.A.



Mrs. Sanders

Miss Mielke & Mrs. Swanson

Miss Finley

MISS RUTH FINLEY is well known to the girls of Christian High because she has been teaching Home Economics to them for five years. Miss Finley, who previously taught in St. Louis, is the sponsor of the F. H. A. She is often called on to aid the Music Department by sewing backdrops, costumes, and other things for their productions.

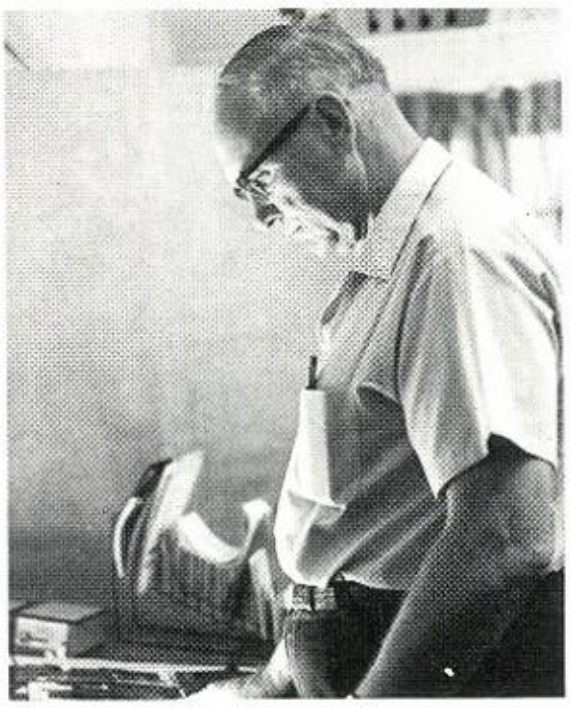
MR. LAWRENCE TOMB came from Texas to teach at Christian High. Mr. Tomb teaches American History and Sociology. He also coaches Freshman football and basketball, and Junior Varsity baseball. Mr. Tomb serves as Freshman class sponsor.

Mr. Tomb

MR. PAUL WOLFORD has been teaching industrial Arts at P.C.H.S. for two years. He teaches Mechanical Drawing, Print Shop, and other vocational arts. Mr. Wolford is the sponsor of Radio Club.

Coming to us from Buckeye is MR. JERRY CONNOR. Mr. Connor teaches Algebra I, Freshman English, and Geometry. He also coaches Varsity basketball, baseball, and Junior Varsity football. Mr. Connor is co-sponsor of Letterman's Club.

MR. LESTER UNRUH, who came to us from Kansas, has a wide variety of duties at Christian High. Mr. Unruh teaches Civics, P.E., and World History. Coaching Varsity football, track, and Junior Varsity basketball, help keep Mr. Unruh busy. He rounds out his duties by co-sponsoring Letterman's Club and serving as Chapel Committee Chairman.



Mr. Wolford

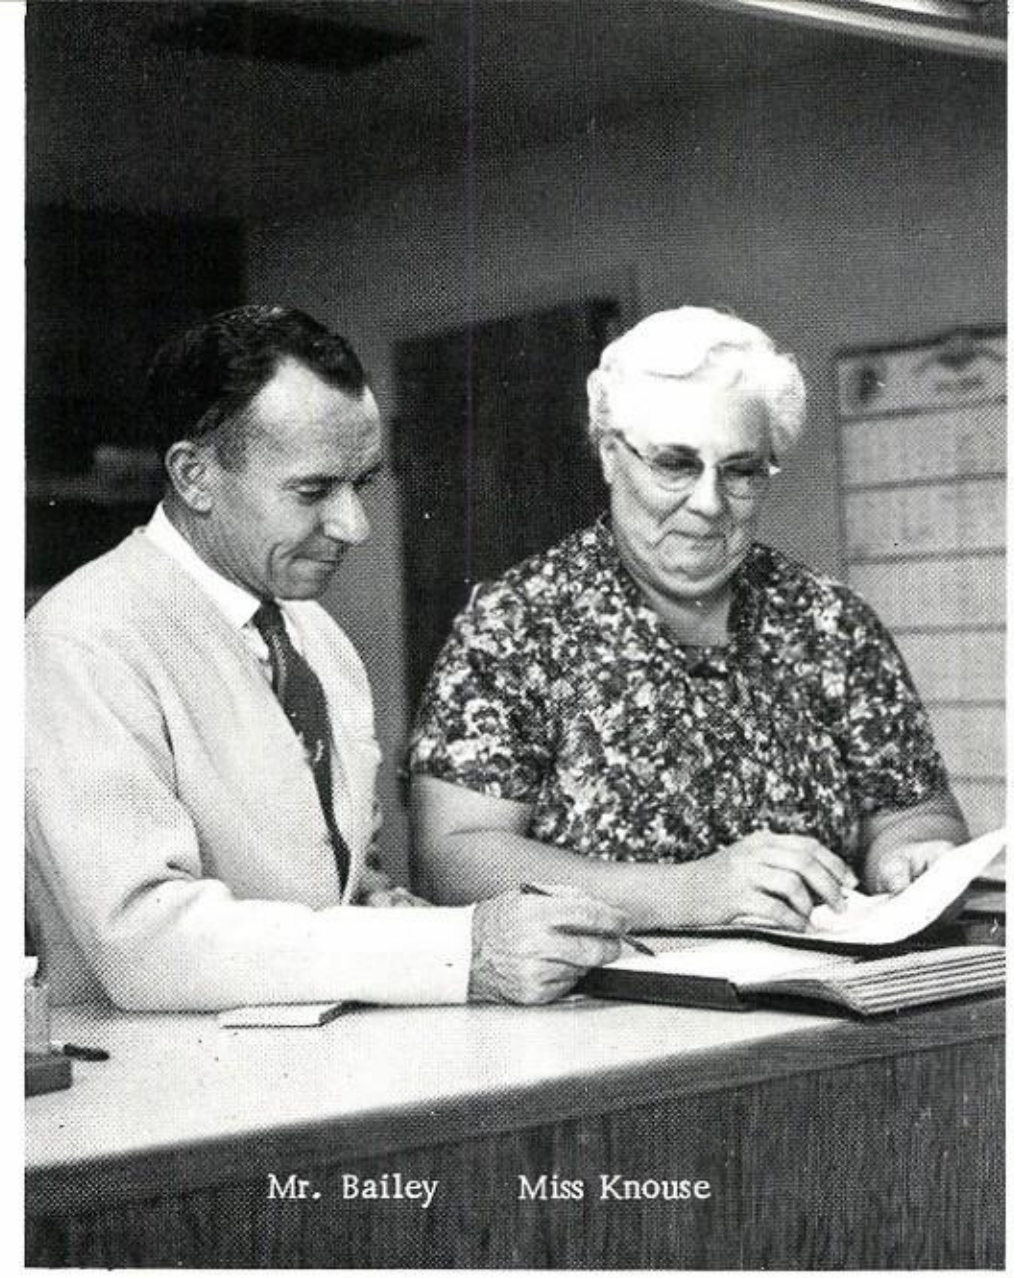
Mr. Unruh

Staff

MR. ARTHUR BAILEY has been the bookkeeper at P.C.H.S. for three years. In this position he must keep close tabs on tuition payments, club funds, gifts to the school, student aid and scholarships, and school inventory.

Mr. Bailey's co-worker in the office is MISS THELMA KNOUSE. Miss Knouse has been secretary at Christian High for two years. Her duties include a variety of things from typing letters, to taking sick students home; issuing passes, and recording grades for the office files.



Mr. Bailey Miss Knouse

Without a clean, attractive physical plant, students and teachers cannot work to their fullest capacity. We at Christian High owe a debt of thanks to MR. CAROL HANSEN for his hard work at giving our school a good physical atmosphere for learning.

No teacher or student can function while hungry. We are fortunate to have an excellent lunch program at P.C.H.S. which can be attributed to the hard work of Mrs. Lois Sutton, Mrs. Olive Pearson, and Mrs. Augusta Clark.

Composed of the four class presidents, and a boy and a girl representative from each class, the Student Council is the student government of P.C.H.S. Conducting the meetings is the student body president who is elected by a majority vote from the entire student body each spring. Also assisting the president is the vice-president and the secretary-treasurer who are elected at the same time. These fifteen people are under the direction of faculty sponsor, Mr. Loye Crenshaw. Under his guidance they sponsored the raising of money for DUX, the cougar. They also sponsored homecoming activities, donkey basketball, and the Sweetheart Banquet. The council passed fund-raising projects for clubs and classes so they too could earn money.

With the help of the Varsity Cheerleaders the Student Council sponsored the raising of money for Dux, the new mascot of P.C.H.S.

Council

Leading the Student Body this year is the Student Council. Officers of 1966 are, Steve Hovda, vice-president; Tim Smith, president; and Sherry Compson, secretary-treasurer.

This year Student Council sponsored homecoming activities. For a break of tradition, the homecoming king and queen were crowned in a ceremony after the game with Dysart, October 22, 1965. Students, alumni, and other interested people were invited. Before the crowning the Student Council performed a skit announcing the donkey basketball game in December. Queen Marcia Stewart and Senior attendant, Sandy Barsness, requested a favorite song, "When I Fall In Love", played by "The Morekerke's." Tim Smith presided over the ceremonies; the Juniors served refreshments.

In December the donkeys came to P.C.H.S. The varsity football team challenged the Alumni to a battle of basketball astride donkeys. As the game ended the score was 18-18, forcing a sudden death play-off so one of the two teams could win. The varsity won 20-18. A donkey cup was presented to P.C.H.S. by the Reynolds Company, who furnished the donkeys.

Senior Class

The senior year of high school completes an era of growing mentally, physically, spiritually, and emotionally. Special events exclusive to the senior class are Ditch Day, the Junior-Senior Banquet, and the giving of the traditional class gift. Commencement brings memories of joy and sadness, and also the great, but somewhat shaky, excitement of a future independance --with God as Guide.

Junior Class

The Junior Year is full of happy, busy, exciting moments. Fund-raisers, such as the football and basketball concession stands, Saturday car washes, bake sales (featuring home-made goodies), and the fall candy sale, all help achieve the goal of the traditional Junior-Senior Banquet in the spring. Two other highlights of the Junior year are the Junior Talent Show and the Junior-Senior Play. One event, not as enjoyable as the others, was clean-up after home games. Most of the Juniors spent some of their school day in Mr. Crenshaw's Bible class, Mr. Kelly's English class, and Mr. Tomb's American history class. All in all, the Junior year is a year that passes all too quickly.

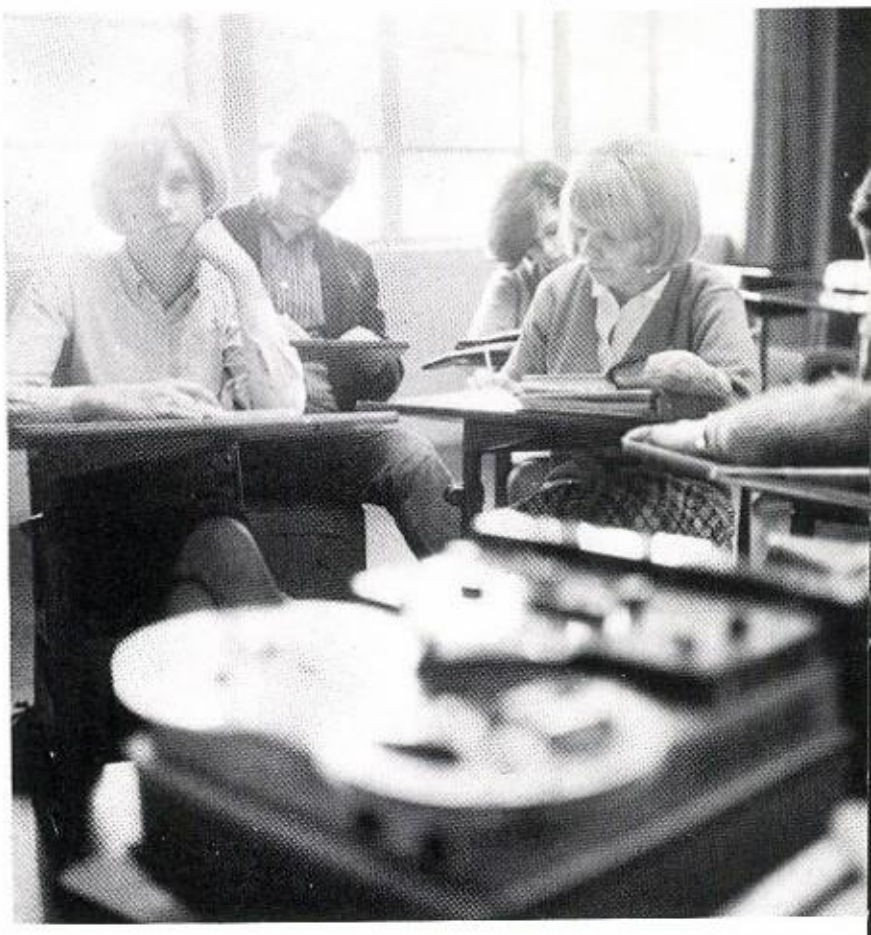
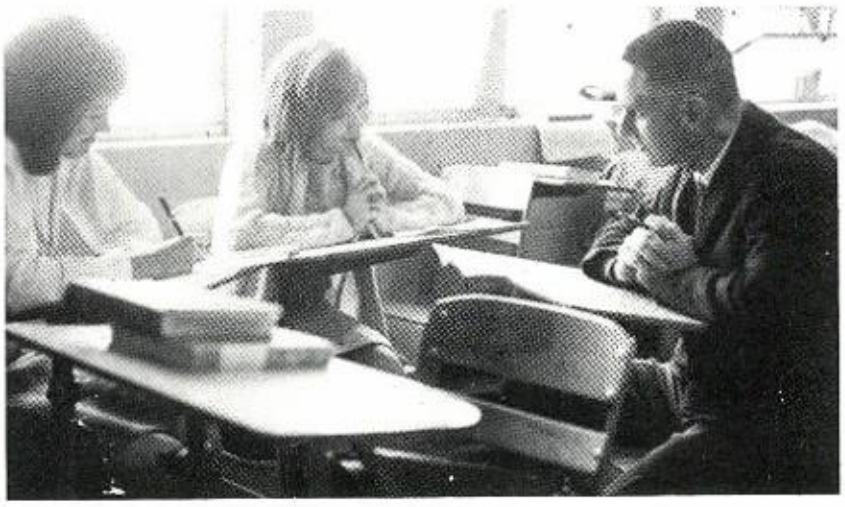
Junior Snaps

Lynn Everett helped to prepare and performed in the Christmas presentation "God Giving to Us", presented on radio station KOY. "God Giving" could well be the theme of the Juniors' year, for God gave us a good time all year, as shown in the pictures here.

Mr. Kelly had reason to think that making up tests was a pastime of junior English students. "Not another S-V-O, Mr. Kelly!"

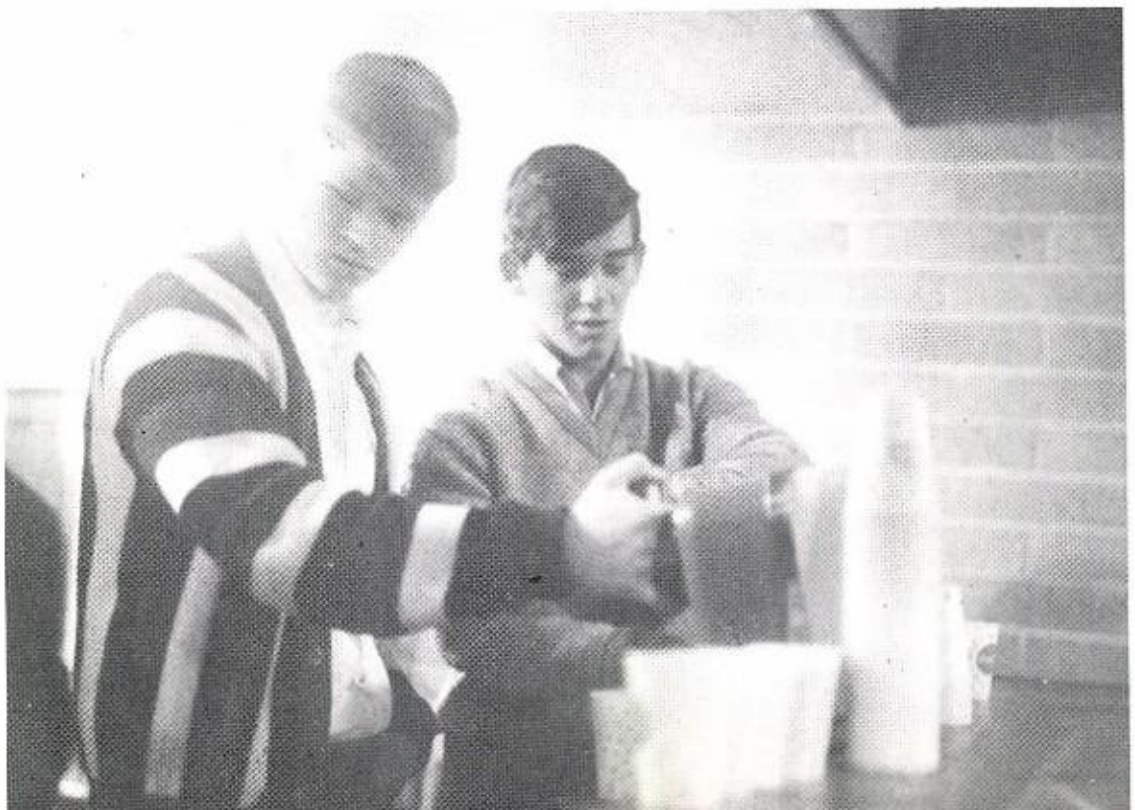




"Wonder where he finds all this symbolism in MOBY DICK?" These are the thoughts of Charlene Lower and Marcia Priest as they listen to Mr. Owenby, practice teacher, in junior English.

Trying to sell a box of his calorie crunchies to Karen Lindblad & Nanci Sutton is Dave Hoover. The fall candy sale was one way the money-earning Juniors accumulated money for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet.

Bill Veidmark and Dave Hoover busily prepare cokes to supply "the pause that 'refleshes'" to the half-time crowd of fans. The juniors ran the concession stand to stash away a cache of cash for the banquet.



Speech class was on the curriculum of some Juniors. As someone gives a speech, Bettie Johnston heckles them by giving a hiss.

Faithfully cleaning the gym after a home basketball game are Karen Vaughn, Ruth Rother, Marcia Schierbeek, and Dennis Miller. Out come brooms and dustpans as the Juniors take over their responsibility of cleaning up after all home sporting events.

Harold Lydic and Sam Casey head up the line of swarming Juniors, eager to receive their class rings. Ordered in the fall, the long-awaited rings were delivered before Christmas.

Planning for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet, Rick Dykman seems to be a knight among fair maidens at this committee meeting with Kathy Sather, Shirley Caister, and Evelyn Richey.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomores anticipated a fun-filled year and they were not disappointed. They held several bake sales, a carwash, decorated the bleachers for Homecoming, and sold candy. They also had a swimming party at the beginning of the year.

At pep assemblies the Sophomores have managed to keep a smiling face in spite of the fact that they scored in last place in all but one yell of the class competitions. They made up for this by putting up huge booster posters for most of the games.

Sophomores looked forward to serving the Junior-Senior Banquet at the close of the school year and waited anxiously for their big year as Juniors.

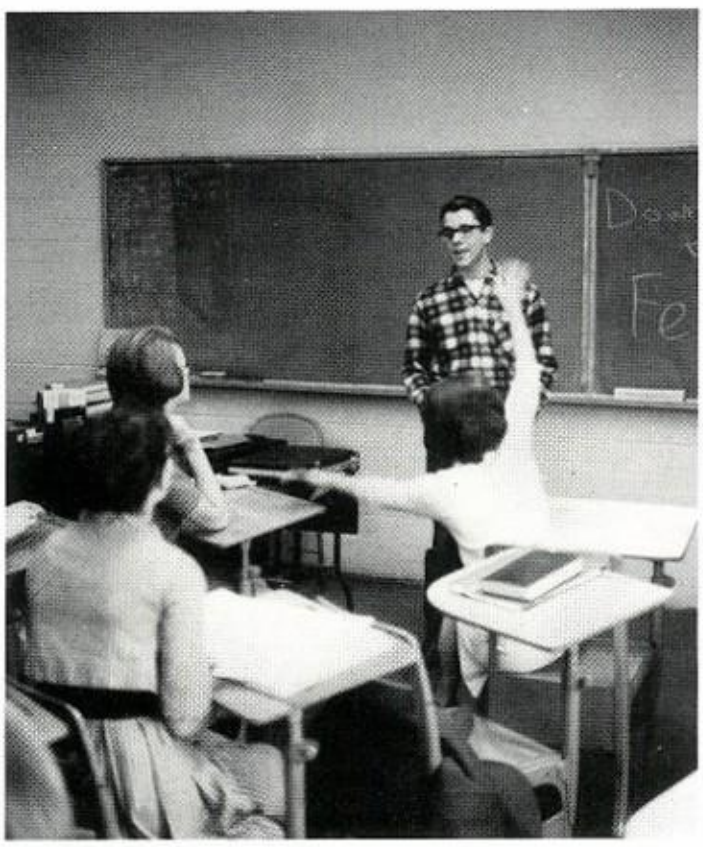
Now in MY opinion. . .

One of the reasons for the increased frequency of the newspaper this year is due to the more efficient routing of typed copy. Linda Mochac was the typist of the Cougar Hi Lites during second semester.



One of the hardest exercises in public speaking is to give a speech while under fire. Damon Becker is being fed to the lions.

The Sophomores have contributed much to school spirit this year by making victory signs on game days and by making this mutilated dummy of a Buckeye player.

To be certain, it's Burton flirtin'.

Freshman Class

This was their first year in high school, and the freshmen started out with great anticipation, ambition, fear, and confusion. They looked forward to meeting new friends and participating in the many activities. They practiced their cheering to win the competition at the pep assemblies. High school was a new experience for them, but now they have a year's practice and are anxious for their sophomore year.

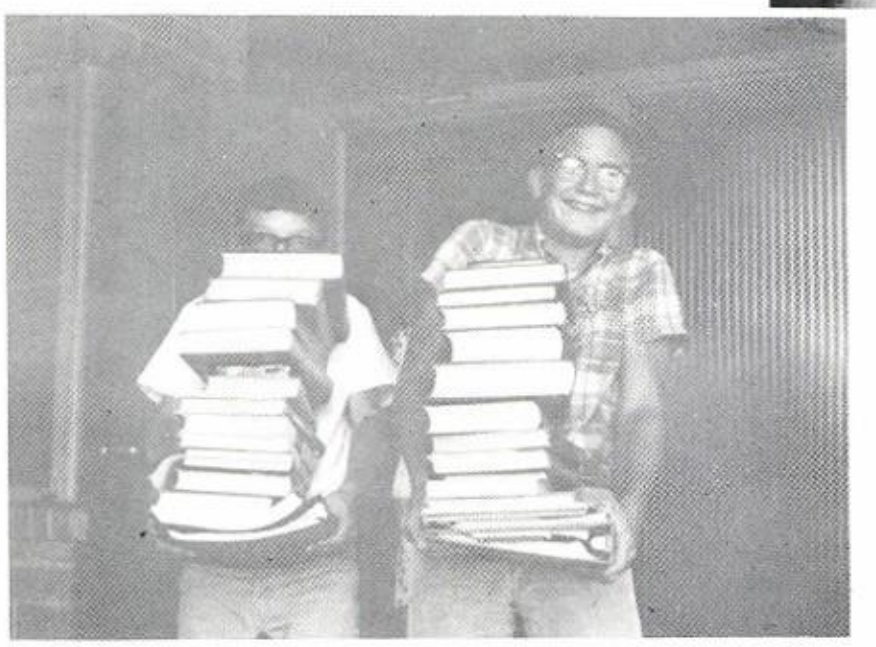
There were a lot of freshmen in band this year. Although they had to practice hard, they found that playing at pep assemblies and concerts was a lot of fun.

Did someone say no homework? The freshmen had more than their share of homework and when all was said and done they had developed minds as well as muscle.



Learning to use reference books was a new experience many of the freshmen had to encounter. To some it came as a hard lesson.

Freshman Snaps

The Freshmen were quick to learn the value and importance of our library facilities.

Generating a little pep and possibly passing a little gossip, the freshmen found the time and place at pep assemblies to scream and talk without the teacher glaring and saying "Pam! Stop talking!"

Campus Life

"Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when the heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit." Jeremiah 17:7-8

A Cappella Choir

The P.C.H.S. A Cappella Choir consists of forty-six members under the direction of Mr. Gerald Bolt. The fall performances included chapel services, Veteran's Day Chapel, an appearance at the State Fair in November, and Thanksgiving Vespers. Christmas Vespers included secular songs of the season along with the familiar Christmas songs telling the story of the Christ Child. Also during the Christmas season the A Cappella performed at the Municipal Building, at the Washington Women's Club, and on radio station KOY. After Christmas the long hours of work on H.M.S. PINAFORE began. In March the A Cappella travelled to California to participate in a music festival and give other performances. Easter vespers and the Spring concert were big parts of the spring musicals in which the A Cappella sang. The graduation ceremonies were the last scenes of Choir's public presentations. All during the year, concerts at various valley churches played a big part in the A Cappella's representation of Christ first, and then the school. The members of A Cappella enjoyed a fun and action packed year as they sang to glorify and praise Christ.

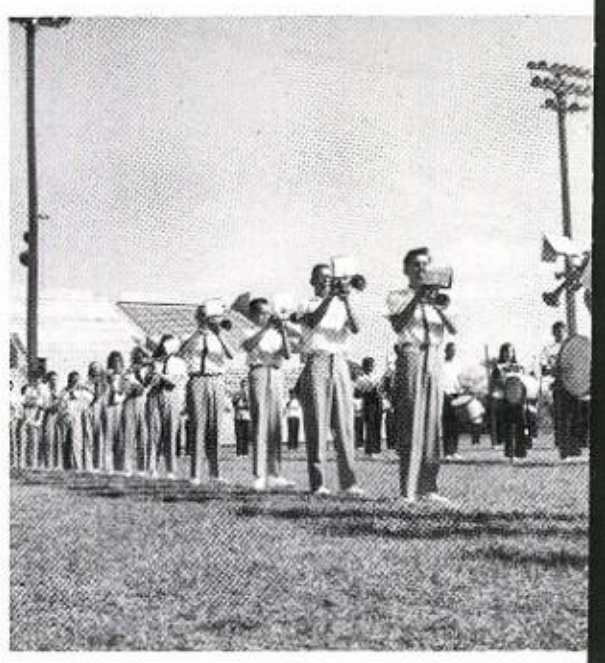
Band

Travelling to Arizona State University in the fall to participate in Band Day, student instrumentalists enjoyed a full and hectic day. In the afternoon they practiced at the stadium with other bands and adjusted to performing with about one thousand other band members.

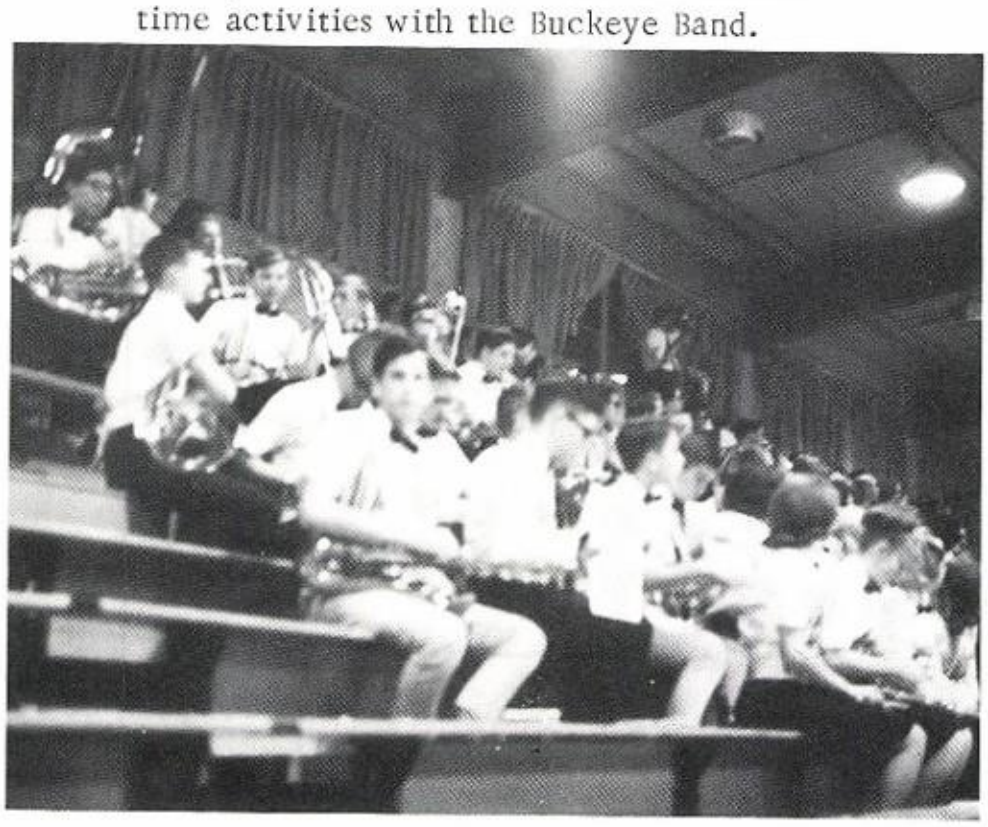
Below: David Vice, a sophomore member of the band, adds the sound of his trumpet to the rest of the brass. Practicing all afternoon on the field proved to be exhausting but satisfying.



Florence Frieling plays her flute as Darlynn Kuipers plays her piccolo during A.S.U. Band Day. The musicians of P.C.H.S. were proud to be among the bands accepted to participate in this annual event.

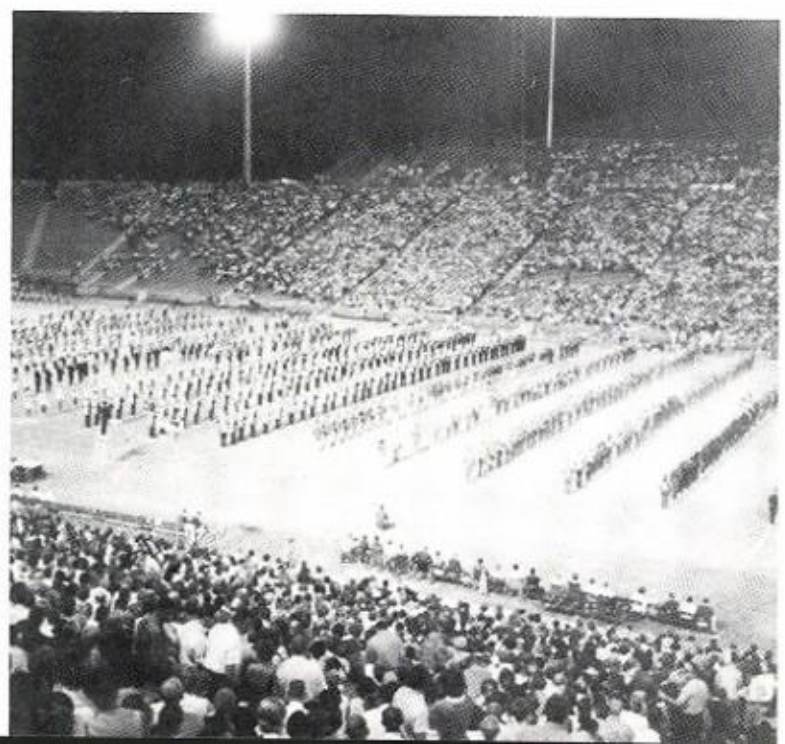
Filling the bus with instruments, uniforms, and themselves, the Band crowded the vehicle on their trips, one of which was to Buckeye where the Band shared in the half-time activities with the Buckeye Band.

Under the direction of Mr. Gerald Bolt, the Phoenix Christian High School Band is a growing, active group. It performed in Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter Vespers, and the Spring Concert along with the other musical groups. In the fall it participated in A. S. U. Band Day with other bands from the area. During the football and basketball seasons, the Band added to school spirit and enthusiasm by playing at pep assemblies and ball games. The first annual Band Concert was presented by the Band on March 4. It featured solos by the two members of All-State Band, Dan Crenshaw and Darlynn Kuipers. In a piano-band number Joe Carter was also a featured soloist. Travelling to California in the spring, the Band participated in the California Association of Christian Schools Music Festival.



Before the game each band marched onto the field playing its school song. Following, the twelve massed bands played "The Star Spangled Banner." At half-time the performance included "DO-RE-MI" and "Maroon and Gold". Each member felt that all the practice was worth the thrill of sight and sound attained in the final production.

Playing at pep assemblies and games was a part of the Band's duties. By wearing green and white vests and by playing peppy fight songs, the band made the games and pep assemblies more lively.



Below: Attentively watching the game, Tim Camping and Boyd Wickizer hang on to their instruments, ready to meet the players' attempts with songs of "Fight" or "Charge!"

Operetta

The H.M.S. PINAFORE, a 17th century satire on the British Navy, was this year's operetta performed by the A Cappella Choir.

Learning the music, script, and stage actions began two months before the performance nights, February 25 and 26. A matinee was also given Thursday, the 24th, for students of Christian grammar schools in the area.

Directed by Mr. Gerald Bolt musically, and dramatically by Mr. Pat Mierkey, the cast includes Sir Joseph Porter K.C.B., Jerry Ferguson; Captain Corcoran, Monty Ortman; Ralph Rackstraw, David Tomb; Dick Deadeye, Paul Kilpatrick; Bill Bobstay, Dan Crenshaw; Bob Becket, Richard Cadriel; Josephine, Anne Vanderpool; Cousin Hebe, Bonnie Kobernik; and Little Buttercup, Kathy Sather.

Efficient stage, make-up, prop, and lighting crews also aided greatly in the production.

Singing at vespers and for churches, the Choraliers were kept busy during the school year. Applying make-up, setting the stage, fixing hair, and preparing costumes took much of Choraliers' time during the operetta.

Music Activities

Missionary Club

The Missionary Club has three purposes: To provide fellowship for these interested in becoming missionaries or who have a vital concern in this area; to arrange for missionaries and other speakers to come to the club meeting and to tell about the program in the missionary's field; and to visit various mission fields, such as the Indian reservations, and go into Mexico in field trips, where students observe actual conditions of and participate in the missionary endeavor.

Truth For Youth

The main purpose of establishing T.F.Y. in the Public Schools is to bring students to Christ and to offer them Christian fellowship. Here at P.C.H.S., Truth for Youth is basically a Bible club in which students are able to meet and to share Christian fellowship. A few of their projects this year have been to raise money for missionaries, such as the Perkins' in Mexico, by having bake sales. They also donated used clothes to a missionary work in Calexico, supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Aven Miller.

Beacon Staff

Your 1966 Beacon had its beginning this summer when the editors met to struggle with theme and layout. Thus, the foundation for the yearbook was laid before the first staff meeting.

When the staff met, their first duty was choosing colors for the yearbook. Then, clutching their assignments, they went to work. They put layouts on quad sheets, wrote copy, took pictures, made triplicate copy sheets, and finally mailed the pages.

We hope you enjoy the finished product.

The 1966 Ad Staff worked to sell ads for the yearbook. The members combed the city at different times of the year looking for prospects. Local businesses were offered the opportunity of advertising in the Beacon.

Language Club

The purpose of the Language Club is to further understanding of languages and cultures of other countries. The club has had many activities this year, the most interesting of which was a trip to Mexico.

Along with bake sales, featuring cakes and cookies from other countries, the Language Club adopted a deserving family in Phoenix and learned that the greatest gift to recieve is a warm, thankful smile.

Radio Club

By teaching students the Morse code and basic electronics, the Radio Club helps them to become amateur radio operaters. The Club also serves the student body by setting up the public address system at every football, basketball, and baseball game, track meet, special vespers, and concert event during the school year. The Club's officers are: Harold Lydic, president; Charles Henry, vice-president; Kathy Wood, treasurer; and Sally Wood, secretary.

The Girls Athletic Association offers opportunities for the development of advanced skills in all sports as well as of initiative, leadership, and sportsmanship. A member of G. A. A. makes many new friends within her own school, as well as with other schools when she participates as a member.

The members of G. A. A. attend as well as sponsor various playdays throughout the year. At these meets the girls compete with other high school girls in differing sports, including track, volleyball, and softball. Points are given for these playdays, as well as the weekly meetings, and the tally at the end of the year determines for which award the member is eligible. The awards which range from the letter, sport pins, guards, etc., up to to the Senior Trophy are presented at a banquet given at the close of the school year.

They held an initiation party for all new members at the beginning of the year, furnished the table favors for the district meeting in Tolleson, took several underpriviledged children to the zoo, and contributed food for the poor people at Thanksgiving. Funds were raised through dues and bakesales.

Starting the year by donating $20 to the purchase of "Dux" was one of the first projects taken on by Lettermen's Club.

One of the main events enjoyed by the club is going to Saquato Lake for swimming and also eating as many steaks as possible.

When a Letterman is accepted into the club he carries the responsibility of being a good sportsman and a good representative of his God, his school, and his club.

Pep pulls power for the majority of the competitive sports by making posters to draw school spirit and by attending the games as a group. Their colorful green and white uniforms are very impressive as they form two even files joined at the end with a crash poster for the Christian Cougar's football team to burst.

For basketball season their green "C" formed by the block can be seen clearly by the opposing team across the court.

Some of the girls await the last minute of the game in order to run out and congratulate the team.

Sanctuary

P.C.H.S. Chapel is held twice weekly in the First Free Methodist Church across the street from the school campus.

The purpose of Chapel at PCHS is to strengthen and to develop students spiritually. Because of the wide variety of students' church backgrounds, the chapel program is broad. Student leaders and faculty speakers have enabled the students and teachers to become better acquainted with each other.

Chapel

Music is an important part of chapel worship. Carol Fridenmaker at the organ and Carolyn Skipworth at the piano have helped to create an attitude of worship in the student body before each service begins.

As head of the chapel service committee, Coach Unruh has helped to coordinate our chapel program. Speakers included pastors from various churches in the valley, missionaries, and faculty members.

Once a year the P. C. H. S. Alumni Association holds a chapel service at P. C. H. S. This year Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Liew, Mrs. Sarah Gould, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bowles participated. They gave their testimonies in song and related some of their experiences at Christian High to their lives. Christian High can be proud of its alumni, who are living for God.

P. C. H. S. has come to anticipate the words, "standing as we sing!" at the beginning of each chapel service. Charlie Retts leads the singing this year.

Mike McNeely and Bill Williams, with almost 300 other Christian High Students attend the required chapel services.

Because the board felt the students needed regular times in which to worship and to fellowship on a spiritual level, they furnished special opportunities for students to make a definite commitment of their lives to Christ, by holding a Spiritual Emphasis Week twice each year. Merv Russel addresses students during the Fall Spiritual Emphasis Week.

The couples talked and fellowshipped as they ate dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bromley, along with other members of the faculty, enjoyed the banquet.

"Stairway to the Stars" was the theme of tha annual Sweetheart Banquet, the result of weeks of planning by the Student Council and anticipation by the student body.

Searching for a speaker, entertainment, a location, and deciding the menu were a few of the problems faced and solved by members of the Student Council.

The student body also participated in the pre-banquet activities by selecting the Sweethearts. Votes for the school Sweethearts were made on the basis of a penny a vote for the class couples.

National Honor Society

Leadership, scholarship, character, and service are the high standards set up for the members of the National Honor Society. A member of the National Honor Society is a well-rounded individual academically, socially, and emotionally.

Students are chosen to the National Honor Society by the faculty. The members of the society then plan an induction ceremony during which the names of the new members are announced. During the induction ceremony the purpose of the organization is symbolically presented by four members lighting candles and giving speeches describing the four purposes of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Following the speeches the names of the new members are read and the new members come forward to sign the membership roll, to be introduced to the student body, and to receive a yellow rose, the symbol of the National Honor Society.

Dan Crenshaw

Valedictorian

Daniel Crenshaw, 1966 Valedictorian of Phoenix Christian High, came to Christian High after spending his first two years at Culter Academy in Southern California. While maintaining a grade point average of 1.154, Dan was active in band, National Honor Society, A Cappella, and Student Council. In addition to these activities, he participated in the All-State Band, the Operetta, and the Trumpet Trio. He was chosen to Boys' State as a representative of Christian High, and he was chosen as Optimist in Arts. Dan's classmates voted him the "Most Dependable" senior boy.

Salutatorian

Carol Rother, 1966 Salutatorian, has been active throughout her four years at Christian High, while maintaining a 1.239 grade point average. Her freshman year began a challenging career of activities and honors. Carol held offices in the Missionary Club, the Language Club, and Truth for Youth; and she was a member of the Science Club, the Saddle Club, Future Teachers of America, Future Homemakers of America, and Girls' Athletic Association. She also was a member of the Yearbook Staff, Ad Staff, Band, Choraliers, and of National Honor Society. Carol served also as Managing Editor of the COUGAR HI-LITES. In her spare time she was an office hostess and teacher's secretary. Carol was cited as outstanding Optimist in Letters.

She also performed on the organ for Vespers services.

Arizona Boys' State and Arizona Girls' State is a citizenship training program sponsored by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary. The students experience the actual operating of a democratic government by living, for this time, in a mythical state, electing officers, and setting up a Legislature and City Council. For a week in June they learn to act as self-governing people and how to take responsibilities as citizens.

Representatives are selected on the basis of leadership, character, and service.

All-State Band

The greatest honor for a high school musician in Arizona is to be elected, on the basis of competitive auditions, to the All-State Band. Representing Christian High in All-State Band were Darlyn Kuipers and Dan Crenshaw. Participants for All-State Band are chosen from every high school band in Arizona. On March 12, the musicians perform in concert at the University of Arizona campus in Tucson.

Head Coach Unruh

Boosted by the Pep Club and supported by the student body, the Cougar Football Team fought many a hard and long battle against the toughest "A" Class teams in the state.

The year began with two weeks of practice starting at 6 a. m. to 7:30 a. m. But through the rest of the season they kept up practice after school from 3:30 to 6:30. The team worked hard and the coaches kept long hours.

Both Mike Camping and Don Fitz-simmons broke the school record of 15 passes completed in one season. Mike Camping completed 20 and Don Fitz-simmons completed 16.

The record set by Terry Howard for the most yards gained for one season was broken by himself: 569 yards.

This year's team has surpassed the team record of yards gained by passing in one season. The former team record was 650 yards.

Coach Conner

Freshman

Freshman boys get a good introduction to the Phoenix Christian High sports department by playing on the Freshman football team under the supervision and coaching of Mr. Larry Tomb. Training for the J. V. and Varsity teams, the Freshmen compete against other Freshman teams, usually on Wednesday afternoons.

Preceeding each game the team captains meet for the toss-up and the handshake: symbols of good sportsmanship.

For the opening of each game, the Pep Club and the Cheerleaders line up; and the players run through the line. Feathers fly as Mike Cross opens the game against the Owls.

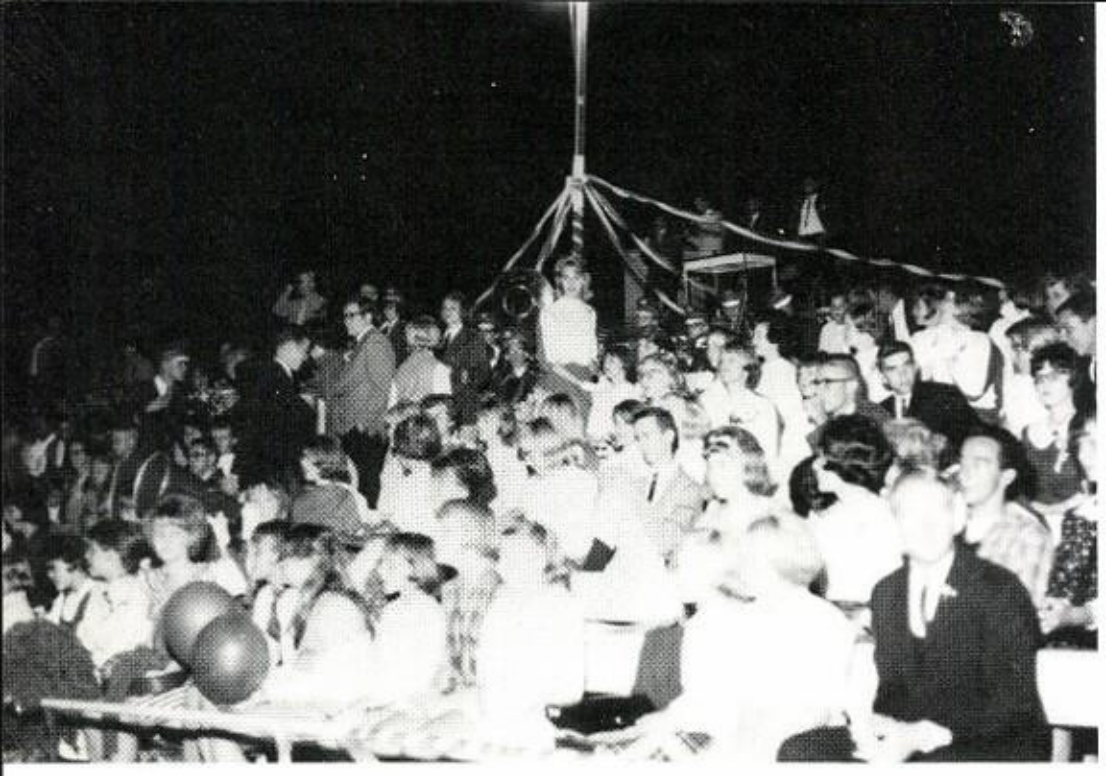
Yell!



Mingling in the bleachers at each game were the Pep Club, band, and an enthusiastic crowd of P. C. H. S. supporters.

Varsity cheerleaders bounce on the boards.

Beating on a pan, Sally Wood is joined by students blowing horns, beating on hubcaps, and rattling chains at the pep assembly.

Dux, the snarling school mascot was purchased by the student body through student donations.

J. V. 's bound and shout for Junior Varsity basketball team, as crowd looks on.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Promoting pep and stirring up school spirit in every possible way were the jobs of the five Varsity cheerleaders. The girls led the yells for the student body at Varsity football and basketball games and at pep assemblies. They slaved over bake sales and car washes, sold megaphones, booster buttons, and school pennants.

Leading cheers for the Junior Varsity team have been Phyllis, Rachel, Nancy, Donna, and Ginger, the J. V. cheerleaders for this past school year. Seen at every J. V. game and sporting event, the J. V. 's have done much to support their team and instill enthusiasm in the onlookers.

Supported by many fans, the J. V. cheerleaders lead yells for their team.

The Varsity Basketball Squad finished the season with a 9 win 12 loss record. Randy Thomas broke the old school record of individual points in a season with 442 total points. He also had the highest points per game average of the team--20.6, the most rebounds in one game with 35, and the most rebounds in one season with 273.

Burton raises the score by sinking another basket.

Junior Varsity

Early arrivals to the Varsity Basketball games were able to see the Junior Varsity team in action. These boys are the future Varsity hopefuls. They worked hard in practice and showed fine sportsmanship on the court. The J. V. 's needed spectator support and received it from the energetic J. V. cheerleaders.

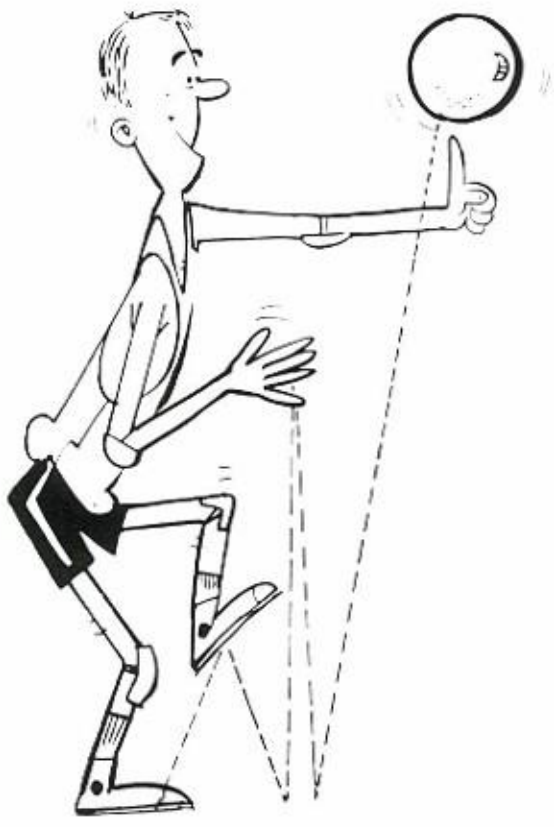
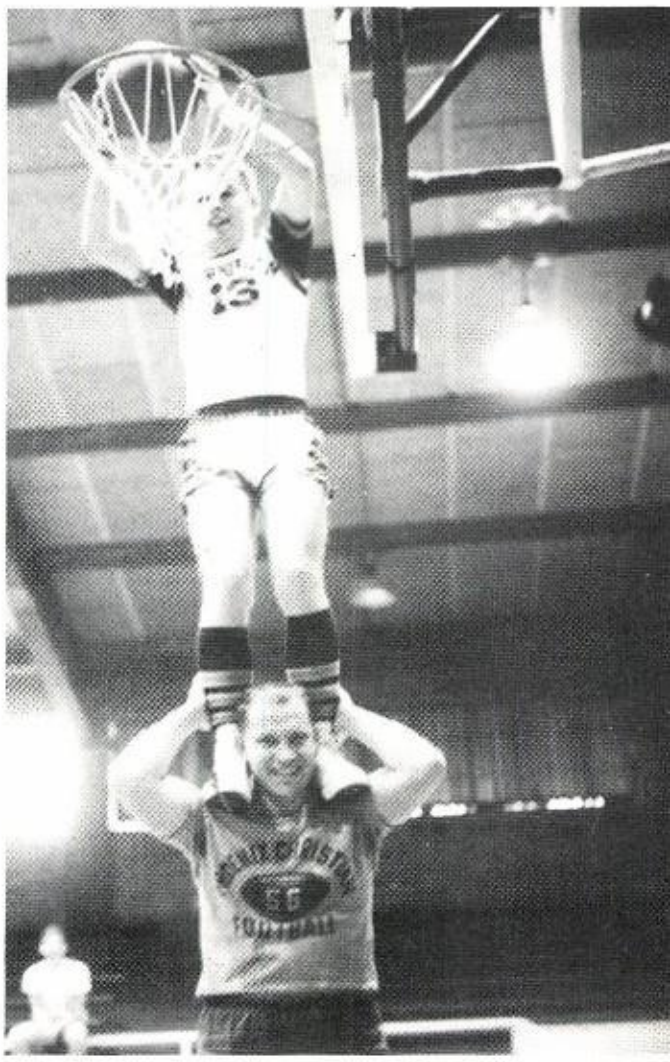
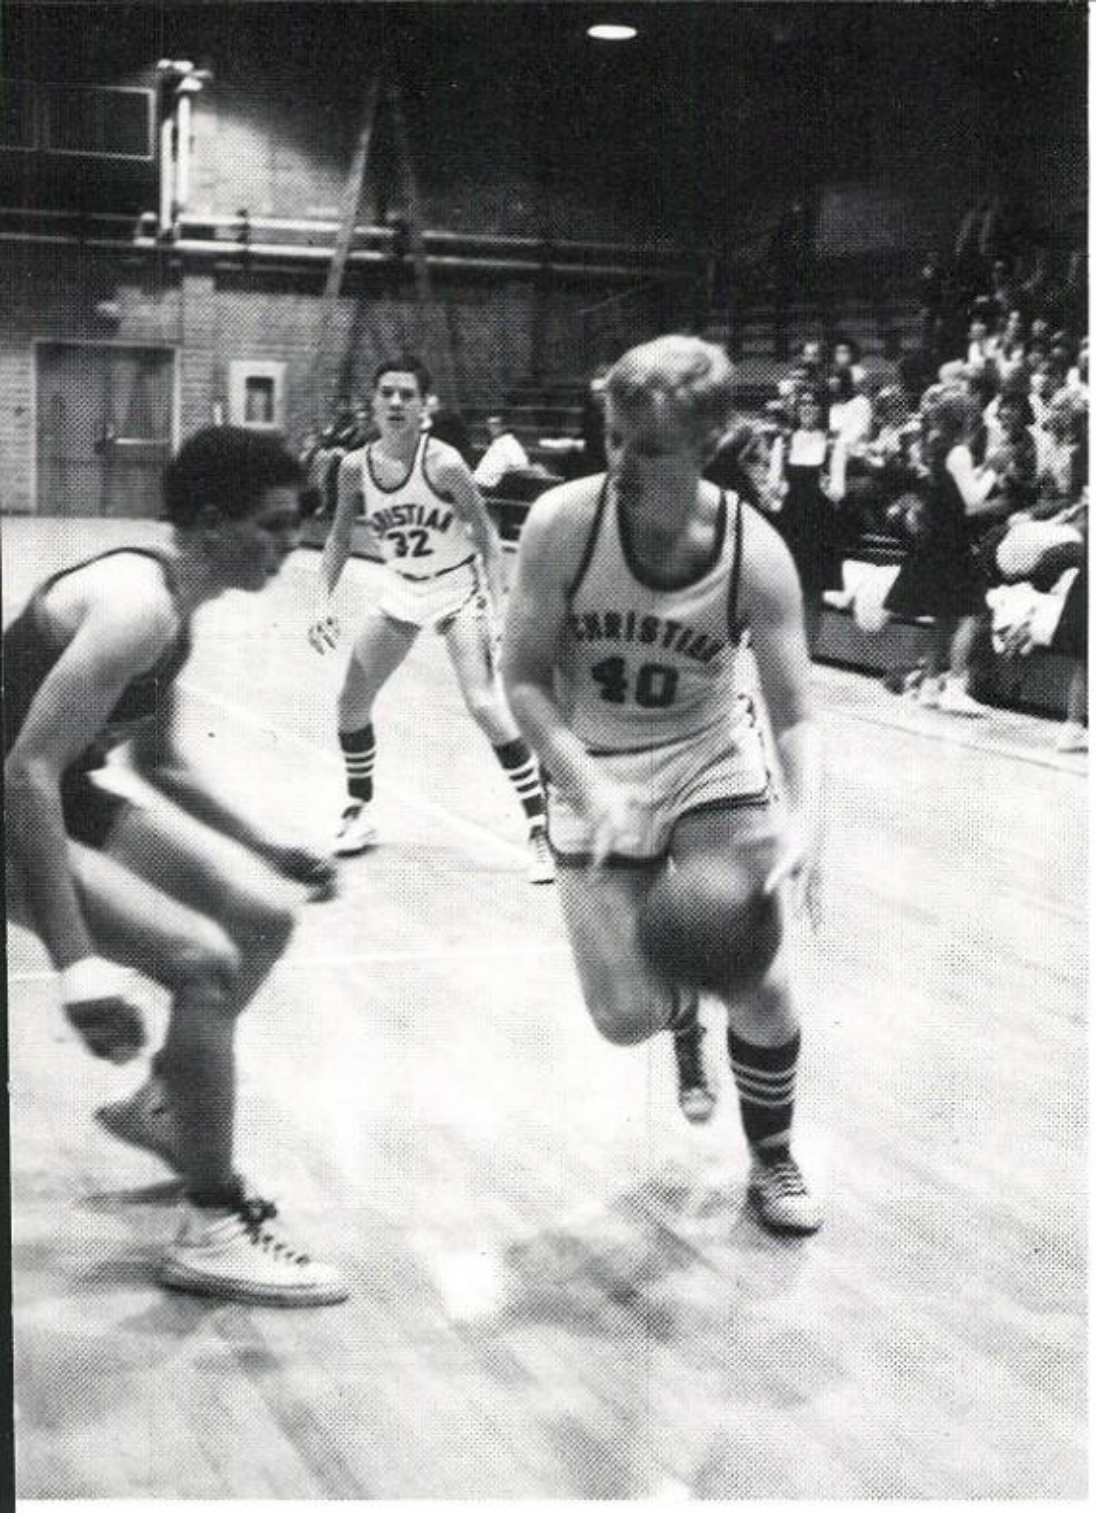
The Freshman Basketball team gained a great deal of experience through their hard fought season. We are expecting bigger and better results as they continue through their next few years at P. C. H. S.



Basketball Snaps

Bart Whiles, a varsity player, learns that there is more than one way to stuff a basket!



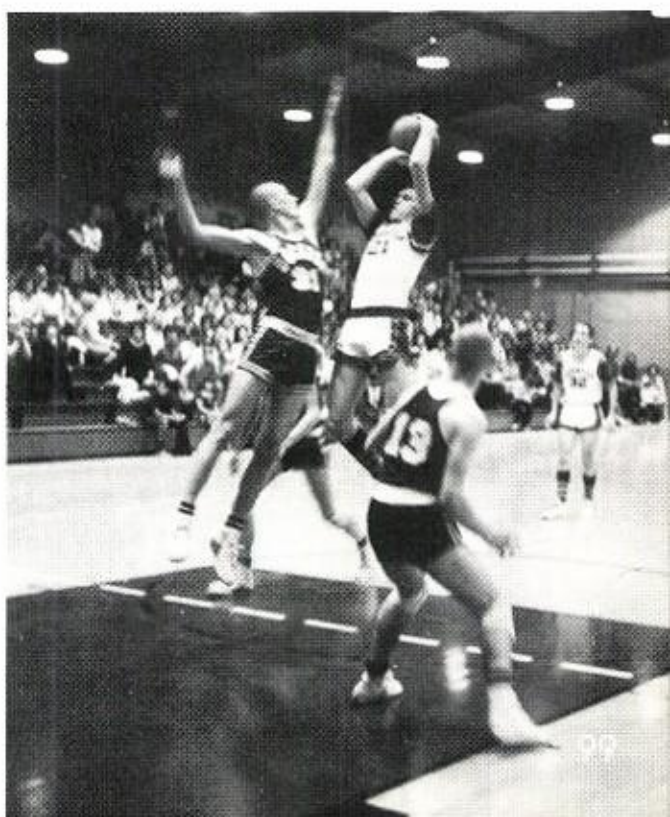


This is just a small slice of the action seen by spectators who turned out for the J. V. games.

Randy makes it look so easy!

A tip from Camping.

"Gaily tripping, lightly slipping. . ."



Varsity Baseball

Standing, L. to R.: D. Hoover, J. Burton, J. Driesens, D. Mowen, J. Bult, M. Hommel. Kneeling, L. to R.: C. Retts, W. Buckner, D. Fitz-Simmons, B. Byrd, D. Becker, T. Howard.

Our last yearbook deadline came before the end of the baseball season; therefore, it is not possible to give the baseball teams the coverage they deserve. However, we do know that at final deadline, the team had a win-loss record of 3-0 against Bourgade, Gerard, and Peoria. The team, unified under Jerry Connor's coaching, worked toward their goal of going to state in '66.

J. V. Baseball

Training for next year's varsity baseball team required exertion and effort from the 1965-66 J. V. team. At deadline time the J. V. 's, coached by Mr. Tomb, were off to a rough start. But all experience, win or lose, trains players for next year's contests.

Baseball Snaps

Playing any sport requires deep concentration. Terry Howard and Dave Hoover are displaying just this kind of behavior while on the field.

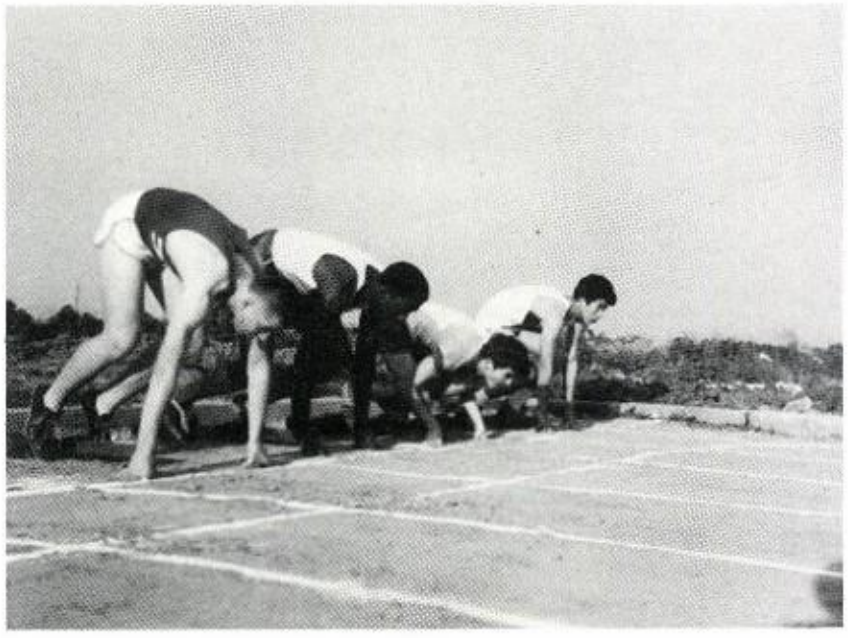
Track

The 1966 track team, guided by Coach Unruh is battling through a very difficult season. Final deadline time came during track season making it impossible to have complete coverage of track.



. . . it's how you run the race that counts!

Jen, (Tiger??)

I really feel privileged being the first one to write in your annual, but I'm sure it was by accident so I won't get my hopes up!? Even though you got over emotional (slapping me on the back & face) I think you're a pretty neat guy. It's been so neat knowing you this year and being your best friend. I don't know what you'd have done without me!? I'll always remember "Spring Fever" and the talks we had on the gym floor. I enjoyed hearing all your sad tales of woe!! I tried to help you, and you know I did! You didn't have to tell me that you were in a fight. I knew it all along! It was all an act, & it fooled everyone but me! I saw right through you. Have fun this summer & then on college. I sure hope you discover the truth about eternal security real soon!! I really appreciate how close you've been to me Jen and I hope it remains the closest of friends! Luck with Anne (I don't think you need it now)

Love Ya,
Jane (B)

To Jim,

I'm afraid I'm not as good at writing neat stuff as you are. Sometime in the future you'll have to show me ok? It's kinda hard to write at this late date after school is out.

I'll start off with our first date. I'll also never forget what you wore,. Your black slacks and the striped coat Did you ever look tuff!! Boy I sure didn't know about dating. After you told me all the stupid stuff I did (only then did I realize) (SEE WHAT I MEAN?) how stupid I really was. (and still am!)

Then there was always the football games You were always the arsist. I'll never forget the first time I met your parents and my eye shrunken. I remember how mad I was.

Yes. this year has really been alot of fun I think you know me inside out. Better than anyone else. I know I've done alot of stupid things the 11, and I hope longer months! You've always been so great in understanding.

Now, you're in Europe and having a great time with Diane. I hope not too good for here I'm home hoping and praying you'll forgive me again. You really don't know how much you really like someone until they're away for say (3 months?) Even though I've seen you in those 3 months. We just haven't been the same. I'd like to see it get back the way we were. We needed to talk out our problems instead of keeping them inside.

I'll never forget the time your folks, you and I went to Elk Creek for that weekend. We had a wonderful time and your folks just have to be the two most wonderful people in the world. You were just great too. O wish I could have stayed longer. All I can say is it had to be the most wonderful time in my life. It was so great.

I would have to write a book telling all our wonderful and heart-breaking experiences. I'm sorry this isn't as tactful and worded just right like yours but I want you to just get the message. These last 11 months have been the greatest but I'm hoping we can have many; many more just as wonderful months together.

(I'm stealing some very great words)

More than yesterday -
Less than tomorrow
(is my love)

Love
